KNOXVILLE, TENN.: FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 24, 1882.

NO. 225

WASHINGTON.

Relief for the Sufferers by the Flood.

The President Makes Some Texas Appointments.

Gen. Rucker Placed on the Retired List.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—General Rucker was to-day placed on the retired list, and General Ingalls was nominated for quartermaster general.

The President, to-day, nominated to be postmasters, James T. Edwards, at Ennis, Texas; Christopher Terrell, at Terrell, Texas; Adrian N. Garvin, at Navasota, Texas.

A new collector of Internal Revenue for the second district of Georgia will be nominated by the President to-morrow, in the place of Andrew Clark. It is the general impression that the name of William H. Johnson, of Georgia, will be sent in.

TENNESSEE POLITICS.

The Outlook for this Summer.

Nashville correspondence Courier-Journal.

The State-credit party cannot afford to surrender its organization by refusing to place a gubernatorial candidate in the field and agreeing to an out-and-out coalition with the Republicans.

Such a move would prove the death of the party. The Republicans cannot, and will not slacken their hold upon the State without a struggle, and of course will support their own candidate.

As to the low-taxers, it is more than probable that they will have two aspirants in the field—the regular nominee and an "independent." Public opinion has settled upon Col. R. E. Thompson, as the possible candidate upon the latter platform. Who the "regular" man will be, it is impossible to conjecture.

There is a long list of names to select from, and among them may be mentioned S. F. Wilson, of Gallatin; Col. John Savage, of McMinnville; Judge J. J. Williams, of Winchester; Daniels of Clarksville; Judge Sneed, of Memphis; C. L. Shodgrass, of Sparta; Supreme Judges Turner, Freeman and McFarland; Col. Harvey Mathes, editor of the Memphis Public Ledger, and a score of others. Col. Thompson is regarded as the strongest man of the lot. He is not loaded with wealth, but he possesses its equivalent in pluck and fighting qualities. He has won more than one fight on the latter qualifications.

It would be hard to guess who the State-credit man will be. Senator Bailey, of Clarksville; Maj. Thomas O'Connor, of Nashville; Horace H. Luntz, of Clarksville; Colonel Col. Harris, of Memphis; ex-Senator Clapp, of the same city, and M. Burns, of Nashville, have been favorably mentioned in this connection. It is generally believed by the Republicans and a certain class of Democrats that the State-credit Democratic banner will be placed in the hands of either Major O'Connor, Senator Bailey or Mr. Burns. Ex-Governor Porter would be acceptable to every class of voters, but he is not a native of the State, and it is doubtful whether he would accept the nomination, having served two terms as Governor already. There would be no objection to Mr. Burns, for while he makes no pretensions to statesmanship, he is practically sensible and one of the best managers in the State. Besides this, it is believed he could bring a considerable number of Republican voters, and no small part of the conservative low-tax element to his support. Maj. O'Connor would be acceptable to both the State-credit Democrats and conservative State-credit Republicans, but it is doubtful whether he would be able to rally any of the low-taxers to his standard. The extreme State-credit Democrats and possibly a few Republicans would support Senator Bailey, but that would be all. Judge Luntz is one of the best political workmen in the State, and would make a good race.

It is evident that no compromise between the two elements of the Democratic party of this State can be effected. This being true, it is the duty of the State-credit wing to waste no further time, but at once resolve upon carrying out in the most effective manner their original purpose of settling the debt. Tennessee must be saved, and by the ballots of her people. They are expected to wrest their beloved State from the clutches of communism. Patriotism will render the task a pleasing one. There must be no halting between two opinions.

Too Fat.

LEXINGTON, Va., February 23.—Charles Jones has been sentenced to eighteen years in the State prison for murder.

Rando's Moffett, awaiting trial for murder, escaped from the Wythe County jail by digging through the wall. Pickett, Moffett's accomplice, was too fat to get through the hole, and was obliged to stay behind.

That pure, sweet, safe and effective American disinfectant, which has been a long time in the market, is now being sold at a low price. A few doses instantly relieve the most violent sneezing or head cold, stop all watery discharges from the nose and eyes, cure headache and nervousness, and banish all danger of fever. Complete treatment one dollar.
